

LEOPARD

'64

In Los Angeles, Baldwin Hill Reservoir cracked, then broke releasing a torrent which wrecked hundreds of evacuated homes, but produced few casualties.

Sandy Koufax won two as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Yankees four straight for the world championship. At year's end, Koufax was named the league's Most Valuable Player. Right: James Whittaker Redmond, Washington, became the first American to reach the top of Mt. Everest.

National Events

Quints were born in Aberdeen, S. D., and in Venezuela in the same week. Here two of the American quintts pose for pictures before going home.

Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas took office immediately following President Kennedy's death and affirmed his intention of continuing the foreign and domestic policies of his predecessor.

Leaking gas exploded during the finale of an ice show in Indianapolis, killing 68 and injuring many others.

Ransomed for $240,000, Frank Sinatra, Jr. returned home safely two days after being kidnaped and posed with his sister Tina, left, and his mother, Mrs. Nancy Sinatra.

Review—1963

With the assassination of John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, youngest president in U.S. history, the country lost a highly-regarded and remarkably capable statesman and administrator.

President DeGaulle of France, saluting, stands with German Chancellor Erhard, right, and President Lübke, as some heads of state gathered in tribute to the late President Kennedy.

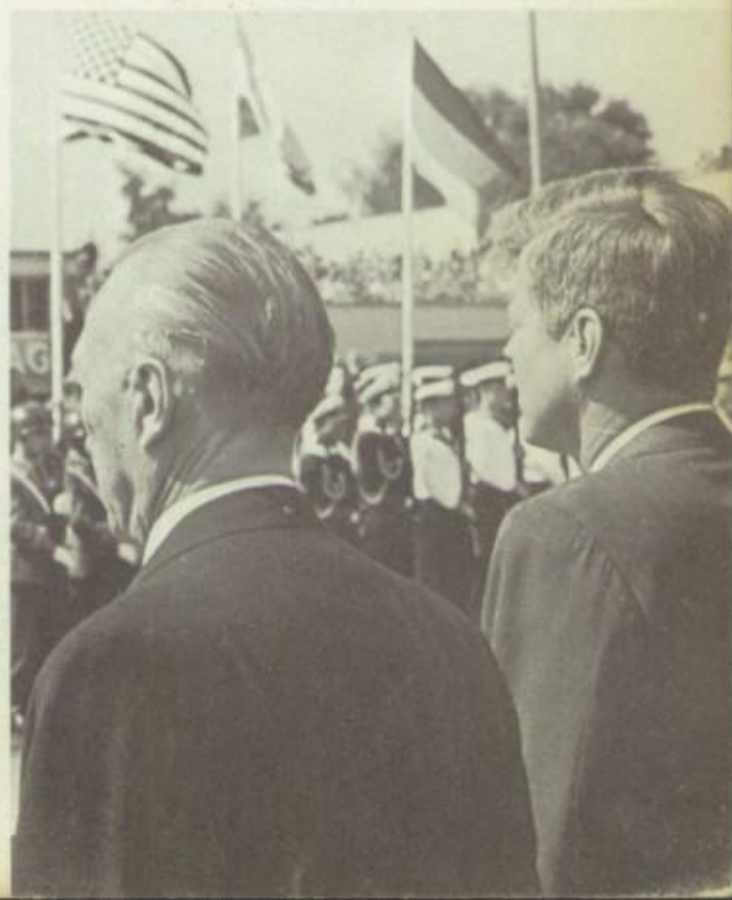

President Kennedy, and soon-to-be-retired, German Chancellor Adenauer met in Bonn during Kennedy's successful ten-day tour of Western Europe.

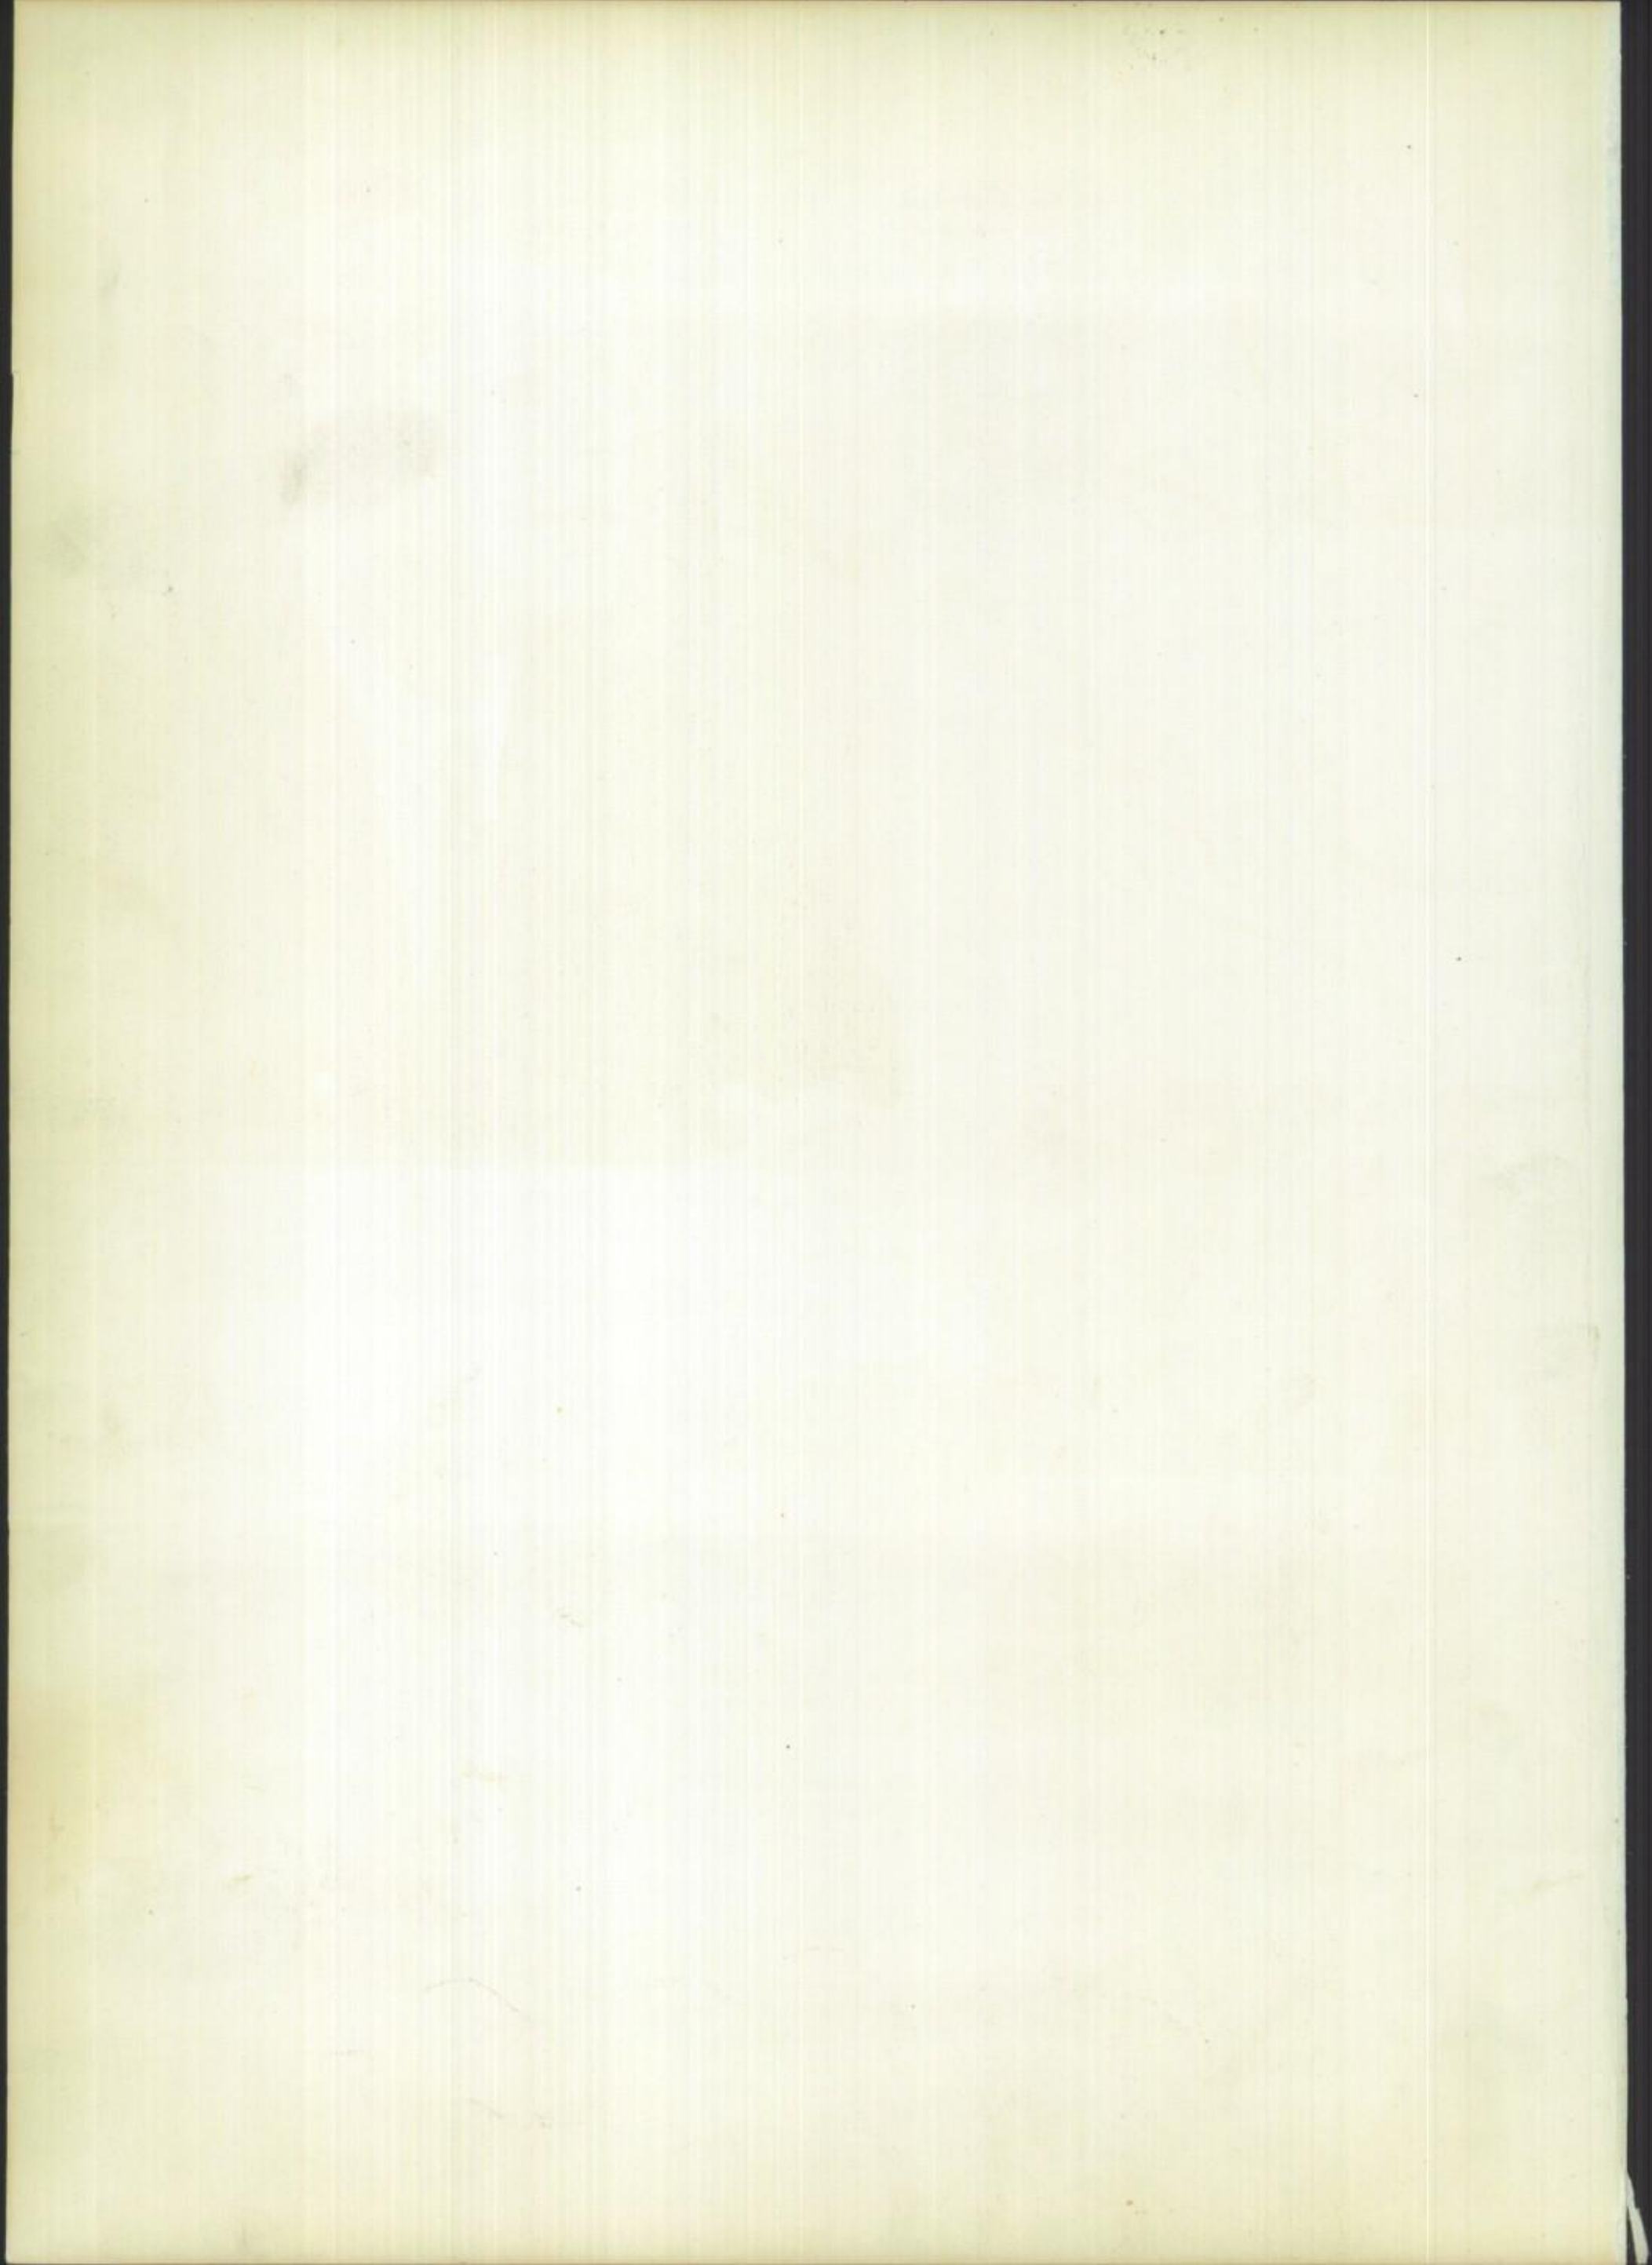

President Kennedy and then Vice-President Johnson (second from right) met with leaders of the August "March on Washington" dramatizing the nation's leading domestic issue in 1963.

Major Gordon Cooper received the Distinguished Service Medal from President Kennedy at the White House in May, following Cooper's 22 orbit flight and manually controlled re-entry.

FOREWORD

AS YOU PAGE THROUGH THIS BOOK,
NOW AND IN THE YEARS TO COME,
MAY EACH PAGE BRING BACK THE MEMORIES WHICH YOU HAVE LONG
FORGOTTEN. MEMORIES OF JOYS
AND HAPPINESS THAT CAN ONLY BE EXPERIENCED IN YOUTH. USE THESE MEMORIES AS A GUIDE FOR THE FUTURE, AS YOU REACH MATURITY.

We, the students of Lehr Public School, dedicate this book of memories to Mr. Ervin J. Miller. He has served the school and community for the past twelve years as, a Friend, Teacher, Superintendent, and Advisor. Without his guidance, interest, and help, we would not be the individuals we are today or hope to be in the time to come.

The school year has almost come to an end. The teachers can ask themselves if they have accomplished what they set out for in each subject. The students can also ask themselves if they have learned anything over the year, and if so, what.

For the seniors there will be no more high school. Most of them know what they are planning to do, but there are a few who haven't quite decided. What ever they decide to do they had better make it something that they like, or their lives won't be happy in the future.

For the juniors this brings closer a time which they are all looking forward to, and that is to be a senior. They will also have to start accepting greater responsibilities.

THE BEST LAYED PLANS REQUIRE EDITING AS WELL AS FINANCING...

The problems of annual production are many and varied. This fact can be attested to by the members of the staff.

Early in the Fall the members of the staff make their annual pilgrimage to the surrounding communities to sell advertising and gather contributions that are used to defray the expences of such a project. It is at this time that they, the senior members of the staff, select the successor or successors to the graduating editor.

To become the editor of the annual one must first be a member of the staff for four years. The assistant editor is a three year member of the staff. Genarally speaking there are found two members of each class on the staff, with the excep-tion of the freshman class. Following this trip the editors of the annual for the next four years are known. The new members of this years annual staff are Mark Goebel, assistant business manager; and Arlyn Irion, assistant art editor.

Following the advertising and sales campaigns, work on the annual progresses as various activities around school take place. A cover is selected and hundreds of pictures are taken. Progress is slow throughout the year until finally the rush is on as the year draws to a close. Although the general layout of the book has been roughly planned, the pages must now take their proper places so that the members of the staff can step off and judge the end result from the proper prespective.

The year of 1963-64 was a busy one indeed for the Lehr High School Band. In late winter they presented a concert along with the Girl's Chorus. Later in the year they presented a concert at Gwinner, North Dakota. The Gwinner Concert was done as an exchange with the Choir from Gwinner High School. This group presented an earlier concert in Lehr. The band also participated in the District Music Festival in Jamestown. They were unable to attend the Conference Music Festival in Linton due to the long spring vacation.

In late spring the band presented their home concert.

Above: A short step toward disarmament was taken with cautious optimism with the signing of the limited nuclear test ban treaty in Moscow. Seated: Sec. of State Dean Rusk, Andrei Gromyko, Lord Home. Premier Khrushchev stands behind Lord Home next to U.N. Secretary General U Thant, Adlai Stevenson and U. S. Congressional leaders. Right photo: Red Chinese-Russian relations worsened during the year as they battled for leadership of world communism. This Moscow meeting between Mikhail Suslov, left, and Teng Hsiao-Ping in August failed to produce accord.

An unidentified priest went to the aid of a wounded soldier during a revolt in Venezuela. For this picture Hector Rondon won the 1963 Pulitzer Prize for news photography.

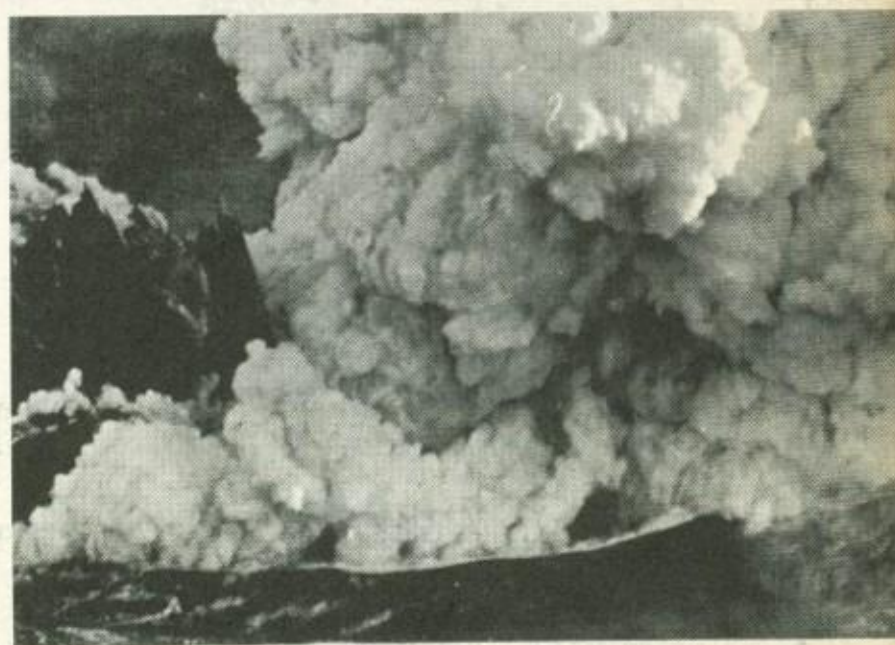

World Events in Review—1963

Pope Paul VI began his reign after the death of Pope John XXIII. Pope Paul reconvened the Ecumenical Council and at year's end planned an unprecedented journey to the Holy Land.

Left, below: Dr. Helge Ingstad, veteran Norwegian explorer found remains of a 9-house Viking settlement in Newfoundland dating 500 years before Columbus. Right: A huge landslide into Vaiont Reservoir in northern Italy sent a wall of water into the valley below destroying Longarone and killing some 3,000 people.

A new island, 1 1/4 mile long and 130 feet high, was born off southern Iceland from an under-water volcano.

Britain's new prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, took office in November, after scandals shook Harold Macmillan's government.

East-West tension continued: left; Gen. Chong of North Korea levels a pistol at U.N. spokesmen during discussions of armistice-violating raids at Panmunjom. Right; Russian attempts to control Allied access to Berlin failed in the face of western unity. This American convoy had been delayed 42 hours en route to the city.
